

16 September 1965

Mr. John Clarke
Room 6E08
Langley

Dear John,

In whatever regard you may have been influential in making me serve as Chief of Staff to [redacted] I do not thank you. However, for the participation of [redacted] I do. Each in his respective way did all the work except that accomplished by the girls in my office. I myself was so involved with so many things I didn't understand with so many cantankerous people, Kirk not included, that my own role was ill-defined.

It could be that the major benefits were to the education of [redacted] and myself. I am mighty pleased that they participated. I admire the way they all held their tempers, at least with me, though through a rather confused but I hope profitable two-months' exercise.

Sincerely,

[redacted]
